

Spartans Speak

By Tim Chang

Here we are in the middle of Easter vacation and isn't it wonderful? South High Spartans are doing various things: catching up on homework, sunning at the beach, and going to the mountains—but mainly just loafing.

The activities continue, however. Last Saturday our fearsome chess team participated in a tournament at Rolling Hills High, going against other schools in the area. The Bellflower Relays, one of the top track meets of the year, is coming up this Saturday. South will enter the 4-mile relay, with George Halliwell, Lenny Jay, Steve Kaplan, and Jeff Marsee as runners.

I HAVEN'T told you yet of the gymnastics team, which is having a fine first year. Training under the guidance of Coach Dodson, they are so far undefeated. Recently, Inglewood was crushed 84½-35½; it looks like nothing can stop our great team.

Jeff Marsee, commissioner of finance is drooling with delight. The sophomore class netted $819 at the Donkey Basketball Game, which means they have a total of $1,526.60. Thanks for your support.

Last week we had as guests, the student council of Verbum Dei High School. There's a world of difference between Verbum Dei, a parochial school with a student body of 371, and South High with a population of 2,800. As the students touched the campus, both councils exchanged ideas, made helpful suggestions, and generally refreshed their minds with scintillating conversation.

JUNIOR Class cards are on sale all this week for $3. The money will be used to finance the Junior-Senior Prum and give the junior class financial support for next year.

The Pep Clinic was held last week. The Pep Squad and Drill Team will train next year's flagwirlers, song queens, yell leaders, and other vital people we could not do without.

South recently entered its top three teams in a debate contest at North High. All the teams qualified to go to San Fernando State Qualify-

Name Dean President Of College

Glenn G. Gooder, dean of student personnel at Harbor College until January of this year, has been named to the presidency of Los Angeles City College.

Gooder, who had been serving a temporary appointment as president of Los Angeles Metropolitan College, moves to Los Angeles City to replace Dr. John Lombardi who was appointed by the Board of Education as assistant superintendent for junior colleges.

Los Angeles City College, with an enrollment of 17,600 day and evening students, is the largest and the oldest of the seven Los Angeles Junior colleges.

Dr. Gooder came to Harbor in July, 1960 as dean of student activities. In September, 1961, the assignment was changed to dean of student personnel, a position which includes responsibility for admissions and guidance as well as for student activities.

Gooder lives in Rolling Hills Estates with his wife Virginia and 14-year old daughter Elizabeth.

Students Seek Jobs For Summer

Southwest area college students seeking summer jobs may register at the California State Employment Service, 1016 Sartori Ave., during the spring vacation. Mrs. June Roper, manager of the local office, has announced.

Employers throughout the area hire college students for work during the summer. Mrs. Roper said. Many of the students possess special skills and most employers find the students enthusiastic, dependable, and industrious, she added.

Area employers wishing to offer jobs to students during the summer months have been asked to call the local office at 328-2611.

Ticket Sales Under Way For Giant Scout-O-Rama

Ticket sales for the 1966 Scout-O-Rama of the Los Angeles Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America were begun Friday evening at the Thompson-Ramo-Woldridge cafeteria in Redondo Beach.

Ticket chairman Charles Nollenberger said the Scout-O-Rama will be held May 21 at El Camino College.

More than 300 booths will be set up at the college by Cub Packs, Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts in the area, Nollenberger said. Many scouting and camping skills will be demonstrated, including exhibits on the Atomic Energy Merit Badge, kayak building, cooking, taxidermy, and handicrafts.

SIX SPECIAL attractions also are planned. They will include, an Indian Village where Indian lore and authentic Indian dancing can be seen; an aqua pool for swimming and life-saving demonstrations, and a little theater for plays and skits.

Other special attractions are the Challenge Arena where Cub Packs and Scout Troops may stage their Pine-wood and Space Derbies, a pioneering area, bridge and tower building, and a special space exhibit where models of modern spacecraft will be displayed.

James Farrell, district program chairman, said the Scout-O-Rama will be "One of the biggest and best Scouting programs ever and one that every one will want to see."

TICKETS MAY be purchased from any Cub, Boy, or Explorer Scout in the area. They are priced at $1 each. Nollenberger said. Scouts will compete for prizes and awards based on ticket sales, he added.

Members of the ticket sales committee include Glenn Johnston, Beach cities; Art Reeves, Torrance, and Stan Morse, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Working on the committee are Mac Daigleash of El Segundo, Gerald P. Strader and Joe Garcia of Manhattan

Beach, Bob Scofield of Hermosa Beach, Barry Hamilton, William Hambro, and Ronald Day of Redondo Beach, George Post, Mrs. Mary Gen-

tery, William Martens, Paul Schneider, and James Stahard, all of Torrance, and Robert Wattenberger of Palos Verdes.

Bostwick, and Elaine Etingon. Linda Owens, a drama student, is director. The festival, sponsored by the Long Beach State drama department, will feature student actors from 16 Southern California high schools.

Drama Group To Perform

Three West High drama students will present a one-act play by Anton Chekhov at the tenth annual High School Drama Festival at Long Beach State College Friday, April 15. "The Proposal" will feature Arthur Hickman, Gregory
